The romantic American drama, "The White Quail," is presented by Louis F. Werba at the opera house to-night. One of the most interesting galleries of characters of the modern drama will be shown. The scenes are laid in the Michigan forests a century ago, and some of the people of the play are early American settlers, American Indians, as they existed in reality, fur traders and trappers with the "knights and ladies fair" of early American society to heighten the contrasts in this striking picture.

The new vaudeville act at the Pavilion proved to be winners, both acts being highly entertaining from every point of view. The E. Z. L. trio, with a lot of comedy, singing and dancing, got many laughs and proved themselves capable at every stage of the game. L. Aiglon, the flying sailor, reminds one of a spider, jumping from bar to bar and flying around on his rigging in a manner that made many hold their breath. He is by far the best aerial artist ever seen at the Pavilion. Two excellent reels of pictures are features of the show for to-day and to-morrow, one being a Biograph comedy drama of the early days in Ireland. The other, entitled, "The Little Mother at the Baby Show," is undoubtedly the finest picture ever made by the Vitaphone producers. It's a picture that will surely bring tears to many a mother's eyes.

SHORT TERM OF COURT.

No Jury Cases to Be Tried at Present at Guildhall.

Guildhall, Oct. 28.—Judge Stanton of Roxbury is presiding at the October term of the superior court in session here. Owing to the unavoidable absence of one of the attorneys, interested in many of the jury cases none will be tried at this term of court. In the case of Partridge vs. Partridge, the court has reserved a decision. The civil docket is also a small one and many of these cases have been continued or settled. In the case of Hattie Willard vs. E. F. Norcross, the defendant asked for a continuance, which was granted on terms.

The criminal docket was quickly cleared. William Smith, who was tried for assault at the last term of court and further held on disagreement of jury, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to three and a half months of hard labor in the county jail. The case of state vs. Berli Davis was not pressed and the two remaining cases on the docket were continued.

Barred for Strangle Hold.

Rutland, Oct. 28.—One of the best wrestling matches ever seen in this city was pulled off in Baxter hall last night, when Wilfred Barrette of Montreal won from John Kilbuck. Referee Eli Bordenau disqualified the Greek for continual use of the strangle hold. The men were well matched, each taking a fall, and but for the rough tactics assumed by the Greek the match would have been fast.

CELEBRATED VICTORY.

St. Joseph's Court, C. O. F., of Burlington.

Burlington, Oct. 28.—Yesterday was a proud day for St. Joseph's court, Catholic Order of Foresters, for it marked the celebration of their triumph over all other courts in the jurisdiction of Vermont in a contest waged during a period of six months and the final awarding of the banner, donated by the state court to the court showing the largest gain in membership, which was 77. What means even more to the members of the court was the present standing shown by the statements of the officers, both as regards membership and finances. The day's celebration was marked by a banquet at the Sherwood house.

At the exercises in the hall, William H. Girard, treasurer of the court, presided. Seated on the platform were nearly all of the members of the state court as well as a number of the clergy and men prominent in forestry affairs. The first speaker introduced was Louis Alapa of Winoski, the head of the state court. Mr. Alapa made the presentation speech and highly congratulated the court on its excellent work during the contest. He also gave some advice for the future which was well received, and he predicted great success for the organization if its members continued to show the enterprise that they had thus far shown.

Julius Simaya made the speech of acceptance and he recalled to the members present the dark days of the organization when there was no money in the treasury, and not any too many members. He told of the fight and the organization which had steadily strengthened the court until it reached its present position.

In the Black Coats we have been getting some extra good values in a variety of different models, with the new collar. These range in price from $7.50 to $35.00. At from $15.00 to $25.00 are some extra good new models.

Our Overcoats

Our Overcoat Stock is the pride of our store. We've all the season's correct models and they're masterpieces of elegance and luxury!

The superiority of the fabrics—the style and the tailoring are apparent at a glance. The best and only truly satisfactory way to make an Overcoat selection, Sir, is to try on the different models to ascertain which style is the most becoming to you.

We're Always at Your Service!

Our prices are moderate—just as they should be, but it will not be wise to let any advertised price of an Overcoat influence you one whit until you see the Coat. It's quality that makes for value, not figures.

May we take up the Overcoat question with you, Sir?
